

London Group Newsletter

18/02/2009

London Group and Lotus at Exclusive Salon Privé Preview

London Group attended the exclusive Salon Privé preview event last Thursday at The Hurlingham Club, where the Lotus Evora was proudly on display alongside other iconic Super Cars. It continues to gain much acclaim from media and enthusiasts alike, as the build-up to the Evora's arrival this spring gains momentum.

Meeting the Lotus Team

Lotus was represented by Ged Sidnell, Project Engineer and Patrick Peal, Marketing Director. VIP guests took the opportunity to try the Evora for size and meet the team.

Motor columnist & celebrity chef James Martin meets Lotus Project Engineer Ged Sidnell and London Group's Fiona Wight

Stunning Surroundings

The Hurlingham private member's Club in Fulham was the perfect back-drop for this glittering preview. Salon Privé will be held there 22nd-24th July 2009 with more than 60 sensational cars on display, including Lotus, Ferrari, Maserati, Aston Martin, Bentley and Rolls Royce - worth well over £20million and some only rarely seen. Celebrity owners, famous racers, vintage & luxury cars as well as high profile and VIP guests are the essence of this most prestigious event.

Our special guests for the evening were Tim Bertioli and Tony Abbey, who saw the ice white Evora on display with us at our Park Lane showroom this January.

We look forward to bringing you exclusive news of the big event in July!